Requirements

- The name and date of birth on the identification document must match the information provided in the finance application.
- If there has been a change of name, evidence will be required in the form of a deed poll or marriage/civil partnership certificate. This is only applicable if the change of name has not been updated on the identification documentation.
- If there has been no change and the name and date of birth differs, the identification document will not be accepted.

If you are unable to provide one of the Identification documents listed in either section, Close Brothers Premium Finance will review on a case by case basis what documentation can be provided.
